British playwright Diane Samuels and research consultant Ghislaine Kenyon (alumna of Mayfield School, England) are visiting the United States in April to run workshops on their full-length play, WALTZ WITH ME, which evokes the life of Cornelia Connelly.

The 90-minute events, which are free and open to the public, will include live music and readings from the latest draft of the script. Attendees will be able to ask questions and discuss the impact of Cornelia's life and work today.
