

CHRIST in the RUBBLE by the hand of Kelly Latimore

This icon, “Christ in the Rubble,” was created last December to illustrate the prophetic message that if Jesus were born now, he would be born “under the rubble” in so many parts of the world.

Kelly wants the icon to invite a ‘holy pondering’ - that potentially brings about hope to be among those who roll up their sleeves to help build communities that are compassionate, creative, inclusive, participatory, humane to animals and good for the earth.

The guiding principles for our apostolic service in each succeeding age are rooted in Cornelia’s understanding of the Incarnation. In Christ we unite ourselves to the whole of humanity, especially to the poor and suffering. We accept our share of responsibility for the sin of the world and so live that his love may prevail.
